

ANNUAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR CHILDREN AT HIGH RISK

SUNDAY, JUNE 9TH, 2019

PRAY FOR THE ORPHAN
CARING FOR VULNERABLE CHILDREN.

PRAYING AS FAMILIES

The Annual Day of Prayer for Children at High Risk is a call to pray for the vulnerable children of the world and those who minister among them. The theme for 2019 is Praying for the Orphan and vulnerable children. This call recognizes the great need for children around the world, as well as the truth embedded in 1 John 3, that the Lord loves children and calls us to be a part of His family.

Oakseed Ministries encourages families to invite two or three other families to come together in a home on Sunday afternoon, June 9th to pray together. Parents, children, and grandparents coming together to remember, and pray for, the orphaned and vulnerable child.

How to make it happen.

1. Decide as a family what who you want to invite to your home.
2. Send an invitation
3. Speak with the invited families to share what this is all about.
 - An informal time of prayer following an outline.
 - Some pre-selected Bible passages will be read.
 - Specific points of engagement for young children.
 - It will last for just one hour.
 - There will be refreshments afterwards.
4. Download the prayer program and materials from Oakseed at www.oakseed.org.

Since 1992, Oakseed Ministries has been assisting indigenous ministries by serving abandoned children and the poor in the Developing World's largest cities, bringing the good news of Jesus through word and deed.
